During the trip, I've learnt a lot about self management and the Australian Aboriginal culture. This trip has helped me a lot with organizing my things more properly and gave me the habit of checking my things before I go out too. Painting the boomerangs was my favourite part of the trip. It also made me understand more about Aboriginal symbols.

The culture from Hong Kong is quite different compared to Australia. Hong Kong is a ~~fast~~ fast-paced city. Everything goes by in a second. However, Brisbane takes it slow, and lets everyone enjoy their moments longer.

I've successfully fulfilled my goals too! I've talked more with the locals and gotten out of my comfort zone. However, I do need to improve on my self control. I was too talkative and disturbed some of the people during dinner in a restaurant.

Overall, this trip was full of new experiences, goals, learning and joy. I hope to visit here again and explore new places in the future.

Thank you :)
