

My Sharings

The trip going to Brighton is a new and unforgettable experience. I make friends here and know more about different culture, not only the British culture. It is a fun trip while I can learn a lot like communication skills and English speaking skills. Through the activities, I can explore Brighton. It is really beautiful here. It is far different from Hong Kong, no skyscrapers, residential-commercial separated. It gives me a brand-new experience.