

My Sharings

On first day, I cried because I miss my mum and dad. I regret now because I miss England too much. Here is too good because I can learn to meet new friends and some high form students. My ~~same~~ roommates are very kind to me. They always talk and shopping with me. Also the most memorable day is in London. I have never been to London before. I love Big Ben very much. I want to go there a long time already. I saw that I was very excited ! I couldn't believe that when I saw that. I was extremely excited and my mum and dad ~~was~~ were very proud of me. I ~~was~~ thought that I'm dreaming at that time. This trip is really good and attract me.
