

My Sharings

I am so happy because I joined the tour. I think Scotland is beautiful and the food is yummy!

I love going to school there too, we can play many games. Also, I made many friends too, they come from different places. Although we speak in different languages, we had happy time with them. If I can, I will join the tour again.