I had some wonderful and awesome days in Ireland. I like this once-in-a-lifetime experience.

I went to Howth Cliff last week. This is one of my favourite place. I like walking along the sea. I enjoyed the fascinating view and the comfortable wind very much.

Also, I went to many historical buildings. For instance, the Book of Kells which located in Trinity College. Two castles — Malahide Castle and Dublin Castle. They are all splendid and grand. I like learning knowledge from here.

Furthermore, I like studying in the school. I met some new friends who are from different countries.

I hope we can keep in touch after I go back to Hong Kong. For the class, it is quite relaxing and diversified. Not only we just listening from the teachers, but also we can have the opportunity to speak. For example, teamwork, group discussion and some games. These all made our class more colourful.

Last but not least, I love my host family. They are really kind. Different kind of dinner were provided by them. They are tasty. I love the two cute dogs — Frank and Mili too.

Overall, I like everything here. We need to be a polite person since everyone in here are friendly. Besides, we should be more active and confident. It can broaden our horizon and let us learn more. I^{will} miss the fresh air, the friendly people and the colourful activities. What a golden opportunity!

Thank You:)
