Reflection

* Please write in English

This is the first time I went to Vancouver, I'm so excited. We went to different places and enjoyed a lot of beautiful views. Although the study of drama made me feel tired, I enjoy the trip very much.

I like Vancouver, the people here are very friendly, loving and responsible. When you encounter difficulties, they will take the initiative to help you. When they see elderly children and disabled person, they will give them the seats. And also, they will classify waste, even at home. I think I should learn these.

The drama lessons are funny, the drama teacher always play some games with us to let us more focus and energetic. She also taught us how to reflect the character's feeling. I learnt a lot of performance skills from the lessons.

This trip is good, we need to speak english to others, our homestay often chat with us, so I got a lot of choices to improve my english. ~

Thank You :)
