Reflection

Before going this trip, I have planned that I hoped I could learn about their culture and speak English actively.

After going this trip, I found that I have achieved my two aims. Firstly, I was happy to go to the zoo for seeing the animals which are kangaroos and koalas. They are really very cute and attractive. In fact, it is my first time to see these animals closely. Therefore, it made me unforgettable and exhilarated.

Secondly, I was glad to admire the paintings on the wall. It is called "Street Art". I think Hong Kong government can promote that painting in Hong Kong because it is a good way for some people who have this talent. I hope the government can think about that seriously.

Thirdly, I am excited to visit the Museum. There are many different kinds of exhibit. For example, the bone of dinosaur, the animal which look real, the clothes exhibition etc. It made me eye opener.

In this trip, I found that I am not worried about talking with foreigners with English. because I am afraid that they will laugh at me. However, I found that I could talk with them confidently. I hope I can keep that confidence in everytime.

Thank You :)
