Reflection

I learn a lots of new english vocabulary. I think that my english is definetly more flunce than before. During lesson, I realise another learning method which is totally different from Hong Kong. For instance, the relationship between student and teacher is more like friends. The lesson is much more relaxing. Teacher will not be very harsh. The things that I learn is not exam-oriental but is useful in our life.

I really love Auckland. The air quality is ~~much more~~ better than Hong Kong. The environment is clean and fresh. There will not be any trash on the ground but lots of tree by your side. There are different nationality people living in here. So, ^{we} ~~it~~ can share the culture to each other.

Auckland is an amazing place. I am amazed by their environment, culture, teaching, economic and more. I hope that I can live in here forever and ever.

There are lots of unforgettable memories. If I need to choose one in those, I will choose the school teacher. They are so friendly. When I ask the question, they will try their best ~~to~~ explain it to me until I get it.

I love Auckland !!!

Thank You :)
