Reflection

I engaged in a Sydney study tour from 29th June to 13th July. In these days, I really learnt a lot. For instance, I am now become more independent as I need to do many things by myself such as washing clothes. I also met some new friends. Moreover, English is my Achilles heel. Thought the English lessons in Sydney, My English really improved a lot. I knew more about Australia for example, food, tradition and some famous landmarks.

I visited many famous landmarks in Australia for instance, Sydney Opera House, Harbour Bridge and Sydney Tower. To me, this study tour to Sydney is really an eye-opener to me as the landmarks I visited are wonderful. The most unforgettable place I visited is the Sydney Opera House. The appearance of the Opera House is amazing. I took many pictures.

In addition, our English teacher in Australia, Mrs Carley, is a nice person. In her lessons, she played games with us. It is interesting. I learnt more useful expressions and grammar skills from her. I would like to thank her for teaching us in this period.

To conclude, although there were many obstacles in these days, it is still more fun than a barrel of monkeys. I am thankful that Ms. Yee and Mr. Kwong for giving me this opportunity to explore. I really gained a lot from this study tour. I will bear in mind this experience. If there are similar chance later, I certainly will take part in it.

Thank You :)
