In this trip, I went to different place and learn many things.

This is my first time leave Hong Kong alone. I know that how to take care by myself. This trip is a chance that I can do it. I also need to have English class. In the class, I can learn many vocabulary and some grammar so that it can improve my English.

I went to some place, too such as Opera House, Harbour Brige, Bondi Beach. In this place, I can learn different things. For example, on the third of July, I went to Bondi beach to interview some people. Although I have some problems in it, at the end, I done it. On that day,

I can know that how to talk to some people who is also speak in English. Besides know how to tak to stranger, It can let me be braver. I think that talking to the stranger is very difficult before that day but after that, I think that it is not relay difficult.

It has many unforgettable memory^{in this trip.} I also can make many new friends. I hope that I can go to Sydney again.

Thank You :)
