

My Sharings

The experience of having lessons with students who are from different countries is very great. It was really a nice chance for my fellow schoolmates to learn and communicate in English. Additionally, the learning style of the Liverpool School of English is fantastic too, getting lots of chances to do group discussions and speaking. Overall this was a good exchange tour.