This activity is my first time to go to another country without my family. Ten days' life is a big challenge for me. But when I arrived in UK, I was attracted by its local scenery. There are vast grassland, fresh air and simple inhabitants. Not only that, I also like the architecture here. Medieval houses interspersed with modern transportation routes. Let me not be afraid to live alone. And, my homestay: Mr. Carol and Ms. Carol live in a three-storey building with their family. Their daughter, Pasia, six-year-old. She is a brave and lively girl. She impressed me a lot. They have two sons. The eldest son Ali, seventeen-years-old. In contrast to Pasia, he is quiet and introverted. It was the third day after I entered his house that we started talking. And the youngest son, Rohan. He was a baby nearly two-years-old. He is the nucleus of this family, he is a clever and lovely baby. Just like an angel. Family members are introduced. I also have two 'neighbors' George. A boy from Haiti and Abdullah from Arab. I and my teammates Leo and Tony were warmly received.

In this activity, what I like most is the arrangement of the home stay, which not only enables me to learn many cultures of different countries, but also enables me to feel the warmth of family in other country.

In this trip, I learned to live independently, but also know that no matter what, should be brave to try.

Of course, on the schedule, I am also satisfied. I finally saw my favorite medieval castle in Edinburgh. Bustling London and Liverpool is associated with football.

I am very satisfied with this trip. If I have the other chance I will take it again.

Thank You :)
