Liverpool is a historical place with renowned architecture and football club. Visits to the Jaguar Car Company and the Anfield football stadium are jaw-dropping. Compared to the living environment of Hong Kong, I do enjoy the artistic atmosphere here, encouraging us to exchange ideas and be open-minded. I'm exposed to multifarious iconic sites like the Anglican and Metropolitan Cathedral. As the birthplace of the Beatles, Liverpool has museums taking us into an atmospheric journey into the life, times, culture and music of the Beatles.

In Liverpool, locals have a Gouse accent, it may be hard to fully understand their words at first, but more practice and communication enable me to dig deep into the culture and lifestyle of the local community. The liver bird is a meaningful representation of the city's history and spirit. The city's friendliness and unity have shocked me timely, it made me reflect on the bonding between Hongkongers.

One of the site we visited was the Football Stadium of the Liverpool football club, which was far more attractive compared to that in Hong Kong. One famous motto of the football club is "You'll never walk alone", reminding the team members to compete as a unit, hurdle over hardships and obstacles cooperatively. This is also true for us, during the trip, teachers and my schoolmates gave me unlimited care and support, we could never leave anyone behind in case of any situations. No matter working as a team or independently, the Canyze experience in Liverpool and London is memorable and eye-broadening. I will never forget these days in my lifetime.

Thank You :)
