The Liverpool-London study tour was eye-opening for me. It is not the first time I've been in the UK, however it is my first time here in Liverpool, which is a fascinating city that is very inclusive and the living environment is very nice.

My favorite part of the trip is that I was given the chance to spend time with my host family. This year, I've been assigned to a family whose dad is German and mom is from Arab. They are a religious family who believes in 'Ba'hai' which is a religion that promotes equality. Through observing their interactions within the family, I learnt that there shouldn't be boundaries between all of us, no matter where we are from, our sex, our background, all of us should be friendly to everyone.

It is a very memorable trip as I get to spend time with my friends and learnt to take care of myself.

Thank You :)
