Time flies, the end of our tour is around the corner, but seems like our first day is on yesterday.

Actually, this is my first time to join 2 weeks study tour, before it, I very afraid of can't communicate with host family and can't adapt to Australian's lifestyle. After this trip, I found I really like this place, people are more friendly here, lifestyle are more chill than Hong Kong.

During this trip, I learnt lots of things, from Aboriginal people and wildlife, to culture in Australia. We also went to different places. The Movie World and Surfer paradise are the places

I like most! I want to go again! Apart from these two places, there're some places are educational. We could visit age carving centre and wildlife park, giving us chances to communicate with elderly and learn wildlife in Australia.

During these 14 days, I got lots of memorable moments. The most memorable one is ~~me~~ on my birthday, this is the first time I celebrate birthday without my family. I got lots of blessings from homestay, classmates, teachers and elderly. Although it was kind of embarrassing, I enjoyed that day so much. It must be my most memorable birthday ever.

Last, thanks for homestay take a good care of me these days. It's a heartfelt goodbye to

Thank
You :)
