Reflection

My study trip was very nice, I really love this place. It is because the people that I met in Edinburgh were very nice and friendly. For instance, the hosts would teach everything that I didn't know in Scotland. Also, I like this country because I can say hi to strangers who are on the street and they would response.

I had learnt the culture and history in Scotland. For example the men will wear kilt. Moreover, there are some traditional foods in scotland, such as short bread. There are legend about the monster in the sea — called Nessie.

What's more, the memorable moment is chatting with the host because I can learnt a lot of thing when chat with them. They had talk about the culture of scotland like what is the life style in scotland or Edinburgh.

Thank You :)
