

Do you love shopping in Perth?

There are 2 main shopping malls in Perth. They are the Murray and Hay Street Malls. These two shopping malls are closed to traffic and link the city from St. George's Terrace to Wellington Street. Both of the malls offer a wide range of specialty stores. The tourists can buy souvenirs there.

The 2 main department stores in Perth are Myer and David Jones. Both these two stores are famous in Perth. You can be found in the large shopping centres. Myer is the largest department store in city. It is in Forrest Chase. David Jones runs between Murray Street Mall and Hay Street Mall. These department stores have almost everything you would need. There are many speciality shops can be found and very often selling the unusual and unique.

When you have arrived in the city central, the easiest way to get around is with the CAT, which is a free bus service traveling within the city central. The route is designed especially to assist you to get to all the popular stores in the city central.

By Chan Suet Yi, Christy

